Early Cascade Elementary School – Circa 1988

The school was constructed (where it stands today on Venetian) in 1928 as the new subdivision of Cascade Heights was being built. It was revised in 1935, 1948, and 1970

Delowe is not Delowe. Originally Toccoa St. it was renamed for area resident, Mrs. D. Lowe.

Originally there was to be a street named Axon, Venetian was to split and become South Venetian
